Wow! What an incredibly busy time we've had!

Sports Relief 2018

A massive thank you to all the children and to our Sports Council and School Council for making our sports relief week such a success.

Inter-House Quick Cricket Tournament

The Week began with an Inter House tournament that saw the children taking part in Quick Cricket matches at the Sports Hall.

Congratulations to the Otters who won the Key Stage One tournament and Squirrels narrowly coming out on top in Key Stage Two.

Water Fight

Thursday was the day of the Great Pupils V Teachers Water Fight!

What sopping wet fun we all had. It was certainly a day to remember! We had to prise the hose out of Mr Mankelov's hands at the end of the day!

Fancy Dress Sports Relief Mile

Our final event was the sporty fancy dress mile on the sports field. The children were asked to walk or run three laps of the field but many were so enthusiastic that they completed many more than that!

After School Cake Sale

Thank you for all the contributions for the Cake Sale after school on Friday and to Mrs Talbot, Zach and Roxanne for so efficiently running the stall.

The Cake Sale alone raised £84.56!

The total we raised for Sports Relief this year (including the cake sale) was a whopping £240.56!

Thank you for your support & generosity!

Football Tournament Victory

Our busy and sporty week wasn't over yet though!

Saturday saw Chilham WIN the Ashford and District Small Schools Football Tournament. Go Team Chilham! ☺

The tournament was aimed at Years 5/6 but we sent a team with;

Jack from Yr. 3

Nate, Joel and Finley from Yr. 4

Jake, Jamie and Tom from Yr. 5

Oscar, Henry and Zach from Yr. 6

Some of our matches were against teams that were made up of all Yr. 6's so it was an amazing achievement with fantastic goals from Joel, Oscar and Zach and wonderful goal keeping from Tom. What a safe pair of hands!

All the boys played amazingly well and showed great sportsmanship throughout the whole competition.

A massive thank you goes to Mr Thomson for his brilliant coaching of the team.

National Schools Cross Country

Saturday also saw Zoe. V competing in the National Schools Cross Country in Loughborough.

Zoe ran fantastically well and was placed 30th out of 310 competitors!

Olympics here we come Zoe!

Easter Service

This year's Easter Service in the Church on Monday saw the Martins taking the lead role in retelling the Easter Story. We heard some lovely singing from all the children together with a fabulous dance from the Herons, an Easter parade from the Wrens, and to finish off we heard some prayers written by the Peacocks.

Well done everyone!

Thank You and Farewell Mrs Sweet

Tuesday afternoon saw Chilham saying a fond farewell and a big thank you to Mrs Sweet at her party at the Village Hall.

Everyone was dressed to the nines and had a wonderful time!

We would like to say thank you very much for the many contributions of cakes.

Egg Rolling at the Castle

What a lovely way to spend our last afternoon of term, rolling our decorated eggs down a grassy bank! We would like to thank Mr Wheeler for once again allowing us to use the stunning grounds of the Castle.
